

Internet Site Addresses

Some of the most useful Internet sites providing current information on various personal finance topics are included on the list below. Please remember, web addresses ending in “.com” are commercial, “.org” are nonprofit, and “.gov” are government.

American Savings Education Council	www.asec.org
Better Business Bureau	www.bbb.org
Budgeting Information	www.lifeadvice.com
Cable News Network	www.cnnfn.com
Credit Counseling Services	www.moneymanagement.org
Credit Card Information	www.cardweb.com
Credit Education	www.crediteducation.org
Credit Report Information	www.equifax.com www.experian.com
	www.transunion.com
Credit Score Information	www.moneymanagement.org www.fairisaac.com www.myfico.com www.mindtools.com/page6
Financial Center	www.leadfusion.com
Financial Calculators for Savings	www.centura.com/tools/index
Fraud Identification Information	www.consumer.gov/idtheft
Jump$tart	www.jumpstart.org
Kiplinger’s Personal Finance Magazine	www.kiplinger.com
Mortgage Information	www.bankrate.com www.hsh.com
“The Motley Fool”	www.fool.com
National Center for Financial Education	www.ncfe.org
National Consumers League	www.ncl.net
National Foundation for Consumer Credit	www.nfcc.org
Quicken Web Site	www.quicken.com
Renting vs. Buying	www.leadfusion.com
Standard and Poor’s Personal Wealth	www.personalwealth.com
Statistics	www.cardweb.com/cardlearn/stat
Web sites that offer comparison of phone plans	www.abtolls.com www.telebright.com www.ratekeeper.com/1010/index.asp
To be taken off credit card solicitation list: html	www.dmaconsumers.org/offtelephonest
Web sites for general penny pinching	www.frugalfamilynetwork.com www.stretcher.com
	www.cheapskatemonthly.com